

EDINBURGH
STEINER
SCHOOL

Name: James McGregor

Short career overview:

I have been self-employed in hospitality running my own bars and restaurants for 21 years as well as property development.

In addition to sitting on the Board of Trustees, I chair the Old Town Business Improvement District Consultation and sit on the ETAG committee on behalf of the Federation of Small Businesses.

What is your connection to Edinburgh Steiner School:

I have a Son in Class 3 and a daughter in Kindie

What do you feel makes ESS special/relevant in the 21st century:

Steiner education encourages the child's imagination, concentrates on their emotional development and creates individuals that can think outside the box, that is a valuable asset in our modern world.

How do you feel your skills/experience can contribute to/support the school:

My experience in business, property and volunteering will complement the existing members in their endeavours to ensure the long term future of the school
